Events in Store

The Carpentry Store are proud to welcome back the Midlands Woodturning Chapter. On Saturday May 14th 2011 the guest demonstrator will be Willie Creighton. This event is free but spaces are limited and must be pre-booked. The demonstration will get underway at 2pm sharp. There is a break for Tea / Coffee and you might even get a biscuit. It is sure to be an enjoyable day and we will as always be offering great value on the day with a further 10% off all purchases.

Turning Blanks

We are now stocking a wide range of turning blanks in native and exotic timbers. We will have a couple of pallets laid out for you to pick and choose. We will also have a range of turning tools and accessories to help you improve your skills at great prices on the day, so why not call in a little earlier and have a look around. With your discount it gives you an ideal opportunity to purchase some fine equipment at reasonable prices from a company that cares about you and your projects.

WILLIE CREIGHTON PROFILE

Willie Creighton is a member of The Craobh Eo Woodturners which are a chapter of the Irish Woodturners Guild. Located in the West of Ireland, he is a committee member with a passion for woodturning. The club draws on members from the county of Mayo and was set up in 2004. Their aim is to promote woodturning by providing a platform for new and old woodturners to meet and share their experiences.

He has experience in teaching woodturning and in demonstrating woodturning skills in Ireland and was featured at the Bloom gardening festival in the Phoenix Park in Dublin. Below is the beech football Willie has turned into a famous masterpiece. He skills are widely known and it is a pleasure to have him demonstrate in store.

To mark the occasion we are holding a competition on the day. It's simple, just sign up for our monthly newsletter and be in with a chance to win a goodie bag that includes the sports bag, Fleece, Measuring tape and a drill bit accessory set.
